

Can We Change Our Destiny?

Power Of Indomitable Will

Before starting of The Kurukshetra war, Krishna - The God vowed that he will not use any weapon in the war and will not fight.

When an Old Man from Kauravas side heard this vow of Krishna of not raising any weapon, He also took a silent vow to make Krishna raise a weapon and break his vow.

Now on one side there was a Krishna's Vow - Of Not Picking Any Weapon
On Other side there was that Old Man's Vow - Of Making Krishna Pick Up A Weapon.

And you know, who's vow succeeded That Old Man's!
Yes, he made Krishna - The God break his vow, to stop that Old Man from finishing the Pandava army single handedly.
That Old Man was : Bheeshma.... Bheeshma Pitamah!

He was fighting so ferociously, that Krishna (playing the role of Sarathi) had to jump out from his chariot and pick up a wheel lying there on the ground to stop Bheeshma.

But how is it possible...? Was he so powerful..?

But power of 1000 Bheeshmas are nothing compare to Power of God.
Then How? How can anyone make Krishna - The God to break his vow...?

You Know How?

More than power, it was about Willpower.

When someone with a Pure Heart & Indomitable Will decides to do something then even God bows to his vow.

“Himmat-e-marda madad-e khuda”

*“Kismat” aapke khilaaf ho sakti hai,
lekin agar aap Sachche Dil aur Pakke Nishchaya vale hain, Toh khud “Kismat Likhne Wala” aapka saath deta hai!”*
