

Can We Change Our Destiny?

Power Of Love

There was a prince by the name of Satyavan, who used to live in jungle with his blind father & mother, because they have lost their kingdom due to betrayals and wars.

A princess Savitri who was known for her purity, intelligence, wisdom & beauty strangely fell in love with Satyavan & decided to marry him.

However everyone asked her to not to marry Satyavan because he was destined to lost his life after 1 year of marriage.

But Savitri had so much faith on power of her love that she said,
“No problem, My love will manage the pre written destiny of my husband”

So they married and started living in the forest.
And as destined after 1 year, Yama came to took Satyavan’s life.

As Yama was going back to his lok with Satyavan’s life, Savitri started to follow him.
Surprisingly due to her pure love & devotion she walked on that path where no one else could have walked except Yama.

So when Yama noticed her, he got impressed by her love & persistence, offered her 3 boons, allowing her to ask for anything other than Satyavan's life

Savitri asked these 3 boons:

1. To heal her father in law's eye sight.
2. To restore their lost kingdom.
3. To give birth to beautiful children.

And seeing that she hasn't asked her husband's life in any boon,
Yama said Tathaastu.

But as Savitri wasn't pregnant, so to fulfill the 3rd boon given by himself,
Yama has to restore Satyavan's life back.

And story says that the couple lived for a much longer time by defeating the pre written destiny.

No doubt, Savitri was pure, dedicated, sharp minded, but the thing which we need to learn is her commitment & faith in her love.

She's like:

"I would chose to live hardly with the consequences of my choices rather than living comfortably with life of compromises."

 This is the same Savitri whose example we use by saying Sati - Savitri.

Sati - That lady who can chose death because of her love

Savitri - That lady who can bring back life from mouth of death because of her love

CAUTION

Don't run blindly behind your choices by reading this story, because most of the time our choices are not made by us in full consciousness.

(Mostly there are other reasons behind our choices like Our conditioning, society, fear, greed, market, media and many more...)

First let us aspire to become pure & conscious like Savitri before running after our choices.
