Timeless Solutions Of Modern Problems

KarmaYoga . Life

Now what can I do, like many of us I also used to think wrong about him, and never respected him when he was there.

You know this is the problem well educated people, they are simple and don't know and don't care about the games of politics.
They just want to do their work sincerely and honestly.
And that's what this person did.

You know I won't share anything for any political biases,
I am just sharing this due to these 3 reasons:

1. Out of my emotion for the legend we have lost
2. For the shame I am feeling of not respecting him
3. For the learnings which I got by seeing .0000000001% of him in 2 days

He was known to be as The world's most qualified head of any county.
But surprisingly I did not have any memory of him boasting about his this identity.

“And look at me :Mujhe toh koi certificate bhi mil jaaye main jhat se status lga deta hun”

How can a person on this earth sitting at such a high position which is entirely dependent on the public perception still chose not to encash this.

This reminds me of Krishna when he said in Bhagwad Gita “Shastraadhaariyon mein main Ram hun”, means the one who is most capable warrior yet never uses his powers for his personal gains.

When he was asked about writing Autobiography, he simply said,
No, I don't, because it will hurt some people.

I am understanding from this is:
He knew where and who mistreated or did wrong or bad to him;
And it is against his principles to lie in his story.
So he chose it's better not to write my story.

Imagine.
How much big heart this person had....

And here we are, we just wait for the chance to open the list of grudges we carry & what wrong has been done with us since our birth to show, tell, announce, and to feel pity, to get advantage, to get compensation & sympathy.

He simply said he knows that mainstream media is not kind in portraying his image, but history will be kind to him.

You mean to say he did not care what people think or being programmed to believe about him because he was not there to please anyone, he was there to serve our country.

Aise Kaise?

Was he above the timeless challenge: “Log kya kahenge”?

Was he like:

“I am not what people think about me as long as I am true with the duty I am doing.

Or He was like :

“I don't care if you press down me under your feet because I know I am a marble of a step of the staircase which will take my countrymen to new heights.”

He used to look at his Maruti car standing at PM house and say to his security officers that “Saddi gaddi taan oh hai, eh BMW nahi :)”

And security officers used to say him that I understand Sir, but this BMW is not for your prestige its for the security reasons only.

Security officer was right, that person’s prestige was much bigger than any BMW, or I think even more than PM post.

Because he was the one who played his role of PM
without getting this PMship over his head.

The one Krishna used to say about Karmayogi....
Fully involved but completely detached.

May we also become a fearless Singh to take bold decision without caring about popularity.

May we also have a capability to Moh the Mann of generations to come with our purity & work.

And May we also become well educated & qualified that can repair and heal any damage done to economy like a Doctor.

May we become 1% of that “Well Qualified Babbar Sher Jo Sabke Mann Ko Bhaata Rahega”
