7 Sirfire Ancestors Of India

सरफरोशी की तमन्ना अब हमारे दिल में है,
देखना है जोर कितना बाजुए कातिल में है ।
वक्त आने दे बता देंगे तुझे ऐ आसमां,
हम अभी से क्या बतायें क्या हमारे दिल में है ।

The poem which ignites the spirit of fearlessness even today was written by an equally fearless person at the time when our country was trying to gain her independence.

Strangely, totally out of his stature and personality, this fearless man once cried.

The time was when after a long case he was convicted for death sentence & his mother came to meet him in jail.
And while meeting her for the last time, this fearless man's eyes got wet.

But strangely his mother's eyes were dry, she remain unmoved & she even consoled this fearless man by saying why is he crying as she is proud of him.

Usually every mother would be frowned upon for her child's decision to be a revolutionary. But here we see a mother's love and passion for her motherland that she very bravely accepted her son's idealism & death as destiny.

And after her son's death, she does not stop her passion towards the country.

She at a public gathering made another bold decision by raising her other son's hand and offering him too to the freedom movement.

Such were the mothers of that time, whose sacrifices made our independence possible.

If question comes that why youngsters of present times are not like of earlier times, don't forget the type of parents who raised such kids.

So whenever we remember the fearless freedom fighters of India,
let us don't forget to remember
The Fearless Mothers of those Fearless legends like the mother of the revolutionary poetic freedom fighter Ram Prasad Bismil,
