Obsession With Laxmi

www.karmayoga.life

“Badhai ho ghar mein laxmi jaisi beti ne janam liya hai.”

“Badhai ho ghar mein laxmi jaisi bahu aayi hai.”

We often hear & give such congratulations in our society.

But why we use the name of Laxmi Mata in such examples...?

Why are we so obsessed with Laxmi coming in our lives or homes?

Is it because Laxmi is the wife of Vishnu?

Or Is it because Laxmi rides a very cute Owl?

Or is it because Laxmi is so beautiful?

Or is it because of some other deep spiritual reason...?

I think it is just because we equate Laxmi Mata as the goddess of wealth, that wherever she goes she bring her overflowing pot of gold coins with her, which means she showers wealth wherever she goes.

But the question is that what will we do with the wealth
if Laxmi Mata bring in our life...

If we are not wise enough to know how to use it properly
If we are not able to see properly without the glasses of our greed
If we are servant to our pleasures & blind ambitions
If we are not awake
If we are a fool.....

Like Mata Annapurna blessed our country specially our region with ample supply of food grains...
but still there are millions of people among us who sleep hungry because we couldn't make this food reach to them...!

Same will happen if we get blessing of Laxmi Mata in our intoxication state.
We will just ruin her shower of blessings over us.

If it's the case Then why don't we give same respect & show eagerness to welcome the of Laxmi Mata's counterparts:
Sarswati Mata (Goddess Of Wisdom & Education)
& Durga Mata (Goddess Of Power & Security)

I often hear people asking to me to bring Laxmi in my life now....
(which means go marry & bring your wife).

And such incidents make me to question..

Why they don't ask me to bring Saraswati in my life?

Are we already wise... Or we find the route to reach wealth by education and wisdom is so long....

Or We just want wealth, pure wealth that too asap.

Because in our society we often see people take the help of education (Saraswati) only to get into a profession to earn money.

And why they don't ask me to bring Durga in my life?

Is it because they know that we are not so pure from heart & character...
and a girl like Durga won't tolerate & will kick us hard.

And to cover up this weakness of ours we often use the phrase

“ Aajkal ladkiyan baut tez hain...”

Because

Shaayad “Tez” ki jageh “Independenet” kehne mein humaari ego ko chot pahunchti hai..!

And I often ask myself by listening to such wishes of ours

Whom would I want in my life...

I think I would rather want a Saraswati in my life,
a girl either as a wife or a daughter or friend or anyone who will bring Wisdom to our lives.

And they say Laxmi always follow Saraswati....!
I don't know if Laxmi follows Saraswati or Durga follows Laxmi or who follows who...

But for one thing I am sure of from the life I am living

If you are attached to Saraswati....

If you are sitting in her lap....

If you are worshipping her from heart....

You stop caring about Laxmi.

Waiting for the day when our obsession with labelling girls with Laxmi will change into Saraswati Or Durga...
& eventually we start to wishing & praying to get wisdom & strength in our lives.
